How are applications assessed?

We know that every entrepreneur and business is different. What we look for is a willingness to learn, become part of the community and the ambition to grow your business.

During your interview you'll be asked questions to find out more about your business. There are no right or wrong answers to these questions. We ask them to get as much information as we can to assess if this is the best time for you to join the programme.

The kinds of things we consider are:

- Are you the owner or decision maker in your business?
- Are you working full time on this business?
- Do you know there are customers who want your product or service?
- Do you employ staff?
- Are you aiming to build your team?
- Are you looking to grow or scale your business?
- Are you open to coaching, ready to learn and develop?
- If your business is already growing, are you committed to accelerating that growth?
