

Scan for more info and to apply

Never Mind The Gap

Supporting women to get their career back on track

Leeds

11th – 27th
September 2024

Never Mind The Gap is a Women in Rail initiative that provides free training and work placements for women who want to get their career on track.

You'll have the chance to get work experience at some incredible local rail companies who are excited about showing you how rewarding a career in rail can be.